WA Kaolin Limited (ACN 083 187 017) (Company)

Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement is current as at 31 October 2024 and has been approved by the Board of the Company on that date.

This statement outlines the key aspects of the Company's corporate governance framework and main corporate governance practices. The Company's corporate governance arrangements conform to the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (4th edition) issued by the ASX Corporate Governance Council ("ASX Recommendations").

The ASX Recommendations are not mandatory, however the ASX Recommendations that will not be followed have been identified and reasons provided for not following them along with what (if any) alternative governance practices the Company intends to adopt instead of the relevant ASX Recommendation.

The Company's corporate governance policies were adopted on 21 July 2020, have been updated where appropriate and are available in the "Corporate Governance" section of the Company's website www.wakaolin.com.au.

Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly

A listed entity should pay director remuneration sufficient to attract and retain high quality directors and design its executive remuneration to attract, retrain and motivate high quality senior executives and to align their interests with the creation of value for security holders and with the entity's values and risk appetite.

Principles and Recommendations	Compliance by the Company
Recommendation 8.1 The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a remuneration committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>(i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and</li><li>(ii) is chaired by an independent director.</li></ul> and disclose: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>(i) the charter of the committee;</li><li>(ii) the members of the committee; and</li><li>(iii) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or</li></ul> (b) if it does not have a remuneration committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for setting the level and composition of remuneration for directors and senior executives and ensuring that such remuneration is appropriate and not excessive.	Given the size of the Company and the resources available to it, the Company does not have a separate Remuneration Committee. Instead, the full Board is responsible for performing the role of the Remuneration Committee. As the Company's operations and employee numbers continue to grow, the Board will reassess the need for a separate Remuneration Committee. Remuneration levels for directors and senior executives are always market-related and not excessive. The charter of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee (RNC Charter) sets out the roles and responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee. Clause 2 of the RNC Charter requires that, to the extent practicable given the size and composition of the Board from time to time, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee should comprise a minimum of three members, a majority of whom are independent directors and be chaired by an independent director. The RNC Charter is disclosed on the Company's website. The Company will disclose (as appropriate), as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the Remuneration and Nomination Committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.

Principles and Recommendations	Compliance by the Company
Recommendation 8.2 A listed entity should separately disclose its policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives.	The Company complies with this ASX Recommendation. Clause 2(b) of the Board Charter and Clause 4(a) of the RNC Charter provide for the evaluation and approval by the Board (with the assistance of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee) of the remuneration packages of non-executive directors, executive directors and other senior executives (including in relation to the administration of short-term and long-term incentive plans and engagement of external remuneration consultants). The remuneration of any executive director will be decided by the Board, without the affected executive director participating in that decision-making process. In addition, subject to any necessary regulatory or Shareholder approvals, a director may be paid fees or other amounts as the directors determine where a director performs special duties or otherwise performs services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a director. Directors are also entitled to be paid reasonable travel and other expenses incurred by them in the course of the performance of their duties as directors. The Board reviews and approves the Company's remuneration policies and practices in order to ensure WA Kaolin is able to attract and retain executives and directors who will create value for Shareholders, having regard to the amount considered to be commensurate for an entity of the Company's size and level of activity as well as the relevant director's time, commitment and responsibility.
Recommendation 8.3 A listed entity which has an equity-based remuneration scheme should: (a) have a policy on whether participants are permitted to enter into transactions (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in the scheme; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	The Company complies with this ASX Recommendation Clause 4.2 of the Securities Trading Policy prohibits directors and senior management (and their associated investment vehicles) from trading securities that limit the economic risk of security holdings that are unvested or which are subject to a holding lock (eg, hedging arrangements). There is no prohibition on any other securities. The Securities Trading Policy is disclosed on the Company's website.
